

NOT LESS THAN 1,000 DIED IN THE FIRE

HINCKLEY HORROR GROWS WITH EACH DAY.

Bodies Recovered Number 539 and this Number May be Doubled Before the Ghastly Search Is Ended—Property Loss Not Less than Ten Million Dollars.

DULUTH, September 4.—Five hundred and thirteen bodies have been recovered from the forest fires. It is thought that the death list will reach one thousand. The pine fires are not all out as the rain did not cover all sections yesterday and last night. The towns destroyed are: Hinckley, Minn.; Sandstone, Minn.; Mission Creek, Minn.; Partridge, Minn.; Cromwell, Minn.; Pokegama, Minn.; Broad Park, Minn.; Curtis, Minn.; Cushing, Minn.; Rib Lake, Wis.; Marengo, Wis.; Bradshaw, Wis.; Arant Lake, Wis.; Barronett, Wis.; Shell Lake, Wis.; Washburn, Wis.; Benoit, Wis.; Sidman, Mich.; Trout Creek, Mich.

Rains yesterday cleared the air somewhat from smoke, but were not heavy enough entirely to quench the fires, which would break out on slight provocation if they had caught to feed upon. Of the fires across in Wisconsin less is known here up to midnight, but there has been no loss of life reported and it is hoped that the worst is over. Notwithstanding the showers, however, the ground is dry and parched and all vegetation is so dry it would ignite easily and burn with terrible rapidity.

HORROR GROWS EVERY HOUR.

Number of Dead About Hinckley Not Far Short of 200.

HINCKLEY, Minn., Sept. 4.—The horror of Saturday's cyclone of flame grows with every hour. The number of towns known to have been destroyed is six—Hinckley, Sandstone, Mission Creek, Partridge, Cromwell and Pokegama. The loss of property in three Minnesota counties will reach $3,000,000, and the number of dead will not fall short of 400. Of these 223 have been buried here, most of them unidentified. The remains are charred and burned beyond recognition. Wagon loads of bodies are constantly being brought to the Hinckley cemetery, so that the list of dead will easily swell to 250 or 300 in this immediate vicinity.

Those who remained in Hinckley will never forget the terrors of that awful night. As the flames subsided and the shadows of night closed down over the ill-starred town the people left their places of refuge and made their way over the smoldering embers through the streets of the village. The fire had spent its force, but the ruins still glowed red through the dense cloud of smoke, marking the spots where, a few hours ago, were the homes of a prosperous and happy people. Guided by the weird light, men moved about as if dazed, locating the spots where their homes had stood.

The air was filled with moanings of the wounded, for whom no assistance could be had, and with sobbings of those who had lost friends or possessions or both. When the terrible night was ended and the light of day other dawned upon the scene of desolation a few energetic spirits recovered from the blow and began to organize for the work of recovering the bodies.

Broad Park, near Pokegama station, a new town on the St. Cloud & Hinckley branch of the Great Northern, was totally destroyed. The flames burned 300,000 feet of lumber, a saw mill, hotel, stores, postoffice, school house and section house. Twenty-five families in the immediate vicinity are homeless. Six thousand tons of hay, twenty head of horses and thirty head of cattle are gone. The total loss of property is estimated at $30,000, no insurance.

The dead found were buried. All railroad bridges between Mora and Hinckley were burned but will be repaired at once. The sufferers need food, raiment and shelter for winter. Contributions from the outside are needed for their relief.

WISCONSIN TOWNS DESTROYED.

Northwestern Part of the State a Vast Sea of Flames.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 4.—Northwestern Wisconsin is one immense sea of flames, and reports are coming to this city constantly of fatalities and deaths caused by the great conflagration. The towns of Rib Lake, Marengo and Bradshaw have been completely wiped out, and at the latter place three people lost their lives. Many others are missing, and it is impossible to estimate the extent of suffering by the inhabitants. Yesterday a message was received here from Cadott asking for assistance. The town was threatened by a fierce forest fire and the inhabitants were almost panic-stricken at the contemplation of their imminent danger. A portion of the Chippewa Falls department was sent up, and until 10 o'clock last night the 1,500 inhabitants of the village struggled to preserve their town from destruction, but unless rain falls at once the place must be destroyed.

TURTLE LAKE, Wis., Sept. 4.—Turtle Lake was threatened all day yesterday. During the afternoon a bad fire approached the south side of the town, fanned by the brisk breeze which was blowing all day. The entire male population turned out and succeeded in saving the town. At night the wind went down, and though the fires lighted up the skies in all directions, the town was safe. Reports from the towns along the Omaha line between Turtle Lake and Spooner are very meager. Granite Lake, Barronett and Shell Lake, the towns next north, were wiped out, and the hamlet of Comstock, eight miles north of Turtle Lake and five miles south of Cumberland was destroyed. At all these burned stations the tracks are burned and warped and no trains can move. The telegraph wires are practically useless, though an attempt was made to get them in shape.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 4.—Gov. Peck has instructed Col. W. J. Boyle to purchase food and clothing for fire sufferers in Barron county. The Cumberland officials made an appeal to the governor declaring that over fifty families were sleeping out of doors.

SPOONER, Wis., Sept. 4.—The destruction of Barronett was complete. One lone building is left of a town of 700 inhabitants. One man was burned. The total loss is a quarter of a million. Shell Lake has fifty-two dwellings burned, with a total loss of $75,000. Three hundred and sixty people are homeless, and many are without a dollar of insurance. The fires are now under control in this vicinity.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 4.—Smoke and dirt begrimed settlers of the forest struggled into Ashland all day with tales of losses of homes and everything on their farms. They are taken into homes and everything possible is being done for their comfort and relief. To add to the intensity of the scene at Washburn, incendiaries got out and commenced starting fires in different portions of the city. Five have been arrested, three of them being caught in the act. When the first man was arrested rumors of lynching were prevalent. A large number of deputies were sworn in and placed on guard at different parts of the city, with instructions to guard the docks in particular. Cable and Mason, along the Omaha line, can not be reached, but it is thought they are unharmed.

DEATH AND DESOLATION.

Dead Bodies Scattered Everywhere Throughout the Fated District.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 4.—A Pine City special to the Pioneer Press says words can not tell the story of death and destruction that is revealed to the traveler on the St. Paul & Duluth from Mission Creek to two miles above the little town of Miller or Sandstone Junction. The awfulness of the desolation which strikes upon the eye of the observer as he reaches the camp that was once the town of Hinckley is still more strongly impressed as he journeys northward. Dead bodies are everywhere and the country is burned up entirely.

A reporter accompanied Judge Nethway of Stillwater, and the members of a relief party which started on a hand car loaded with provisions to relieve the people of Sandstone, who were reported in great distress. The relief party proceeded as far as Skunk lake, where the Duluth limited train was burned. Here they found Engineer Williams in charge of a gang of men rebuilding the burned bridge. From them it was learned that the living at Sandstone had been taken to Duluth by special trains on Sunday night and their pressing necessities relieved, so that the help from Pine City was not needed. The party, therefore, resolved itself into one of search for bodies of victims of the disaster. The number of dead at Hinckley is placed at from 200 to 300. The correspondent has actually counted 194 of these, and the margin allowed about all that is necessary. The figures covering the known dead are as follows:

Hinckley.....	300
Sandstone.....	62
Miller.....	12
Between Skunk Lake and Miller.....	12
Pokegama.....	28
In lumber camps and scattering (estimated).....	50
Total.....	364

HELP SENT TO THE SUFFERERS.

Citizens of St. Paul and St. Cloud Take Prompt Action.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 4.—The citizens and members of the chamber of commerce in St. Paul, who assembled yesterday to take action for the relief of the fire sufferers, raised nearly $4,000 in cash subscriptions, before adjournment and appointed a large committee, representative of the various organizations and business interests, to take charge of the contributions made and solicit additional ones.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Sept. 4.—The city council held a special meeting and decided to supply a temporary relief train for the people at Pokegama, as those from Hinckley are being reached from other points. The council made no definite appropriation, but decided to supply all temporary and necessary relief.

Gov. Nelson has issued a proclamation calling on the people of the state for contributions to aid the sufferers.

Hundreds of Settlers Homeless.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Sept. 4.—The South Shore road got its Saturday night train through from Duluth yesterday morning twenty-four hours late. Reports from all the towns along the south shore to the Wisconsin state line say that all is yet safe, though there are literally hundreds of fires in this vast belt of timber. There have been no great calamities in this region, but scores if not hundreds of homesteaders have lost all they possessed and the damage to timber has been enormous. Competent and conservative men estimate the standing pine over which fire has run at not less than 150,000,000 feet. Advice received from Nestora report heavy rains there and westward. This will materially check the forest fire, and if general will put the whole district out of danger.

Bringing in the Corpses.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 4.—About 7 o'clock last evening a searching party in a wagon returned to Hinckley from the woods nearby, bringing with them nine dead bodies. They reported twenty more bodies lying in the woods and were unable to haul them in because of their already heavy load. Wagons and searching parties will go out to-day to bring in other dead.

At the place where Pokegama stood there are twenty dead and fifteen missing. This was a village of 100 inhabitants, located on the Eastern Minnesota road, eight miles east of Hinckley. W. W. Braman and thirty-five others escaped by hiding in a puddle of water. A relief party went to their assistance on a hand-car from Hinckley.

First Train Since Saturday.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 4.—The first through train since the devastation was the St. Paul & Duluth special that left St. Paul at 4:15 last evening. In addition to an investigation committee from Minneapolis it had on board about 100 sightseers and committees from benevolent societies. A carload of provisions and supplies arrived on a relief train early in the day and the special train arriving at 7 in the evening brought a large supply of fresh bread and other eatables. It is estimated that 100 woodmen are still missing, and there is a question as to their escapes. Most of the camps are being operated by Stillwater men, and they are here to organize a search for their men. From reports at hand there is no ground for believing that the horses, oxen and hogs at the camps have escaped.

Sixty Dead at Sandstone.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 4.—Early yesterday a relief train returned to Duluth bearing 227 survivors of the burning of Sandstone. One hundred and fifty persons were left and a second train was sent out for them. Sixty bodies were found in the little town, scattered about everywhere. No attempt has been made to bury them. One building is all that remains at Partridge, on the Eastern Minnesota. Everything was burned, but as far as can be learned only one life was lost.

Found Death in the Well.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Sept. 4.—Near Milaca a family of five took refuge in a well. The fire extended to the woodwork surrounding it, and after it was burned off caused the well to cave in and all five perished by drowning. A special from Mora states that many of those injured in the Pokegama fire are dying from their wounds and the number of deaths may exceed fifty. Help has been sent the sufferers.

Two More Towns Burned.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., Sept. 4.—A forest fire destroyed Curtis and Cushing, eighteen miles west of here, Saturday. The loss at Cushing was about $35,000. A great deal of timber was destroyed. One hundred persons are homeless, but no lives were lost.

Asks Help for the Sufferers.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 4.—Gov. Peck has issued an appeal for relief for burned-out people at Barronett, Granite Lake and Comstock, where 100 families are suffering. No fatalities are reported to him. He goes to the scene to-day with a carload of food and clothing.

Welcome Rain Comes at Last.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Sept. 4.—A heavy rain fell here from 5 to 6 o'clock and passed in the direction of the burning district along the Hinckley line.

LYNCHERS IN JAIL.

Their Bail Reduced From $10,000 to $5,000 Each—Grand Jury Meets.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 4.—The five men arrested on suspicion of being concerned in Friday night's lynching are still in jail. They are W. S. Richardson, the officer who had the six negro prisoners in charge; E. T. Atkinson, the driver of the wagon; J. W. Walker, W. S. Thompson and J. D. Laxton. The last three are farmers living near Knoxville, where the negroes lynched are alleged to have done the greater part of the barn burning.

Judge Cooper of the Criminal court at first fixed the bail at $10,000 each, but yesterday reduced it to $5,000 upon their showing that they were poor men and unable to furnish the larger amount. They have not yet given bail. The grand jury is in session and has summoned a large number of witnesses in connection with the lynching.

National Sons of Veterans.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Commander-in-Chief W. A. Bundy of the National Sons of Veterans issued his first general order yesterday, naming his staff officers as follows: Adjutant-general, H. V. Spillman, Coalton, Ohio; inspector-general, Albert C. Blairdell, Lowell, Mass.; judge advocate-general, G. W. Harrington, Kansas; surgeon-general, R. Weldon Young, Seattle, Wash.; chaplain-in-chief, Rev. W. J. Patton, Milwaukee, Wis. Headquarters have been established in this city.

WINANS AND HUNNER NOT IN THE RACE

OLD TICKET LIKELY TO BE RENOMINATED.

Democrats Think the People Who Brought Their Party Into Disrepute Ought to Bear the Burden—Plans For the State Convention in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 4.—Unless all signs fail the democratic convention will not bother with the gubernatorial claims of John Hunner or anybody else. The "old ticket" is now the cry. Nobody expects the ticket to be inside the distance flag at the finish, and there is poetic justice in laying the burden on the people who help to bring democracy into disrepute.

Governor Peck is not seeking a renomination. There has been no effort made by him or his friends to get any delegates to the state convention. He has been rather in favor of the selection of some other man, but he has made no effort in any direction. As a matter of fact, there is no slate, no plan, no organization for any candidate or for any set of candidates. That has all been left to the convention itself to decide. It is the record of the democratic party in this state for the twenty years before a democrat held office that the democracy banks upon, and the nominations will be made with a view to this record, which means, the wise men say, there is no doubt the old ticket will be nominated throughout.

UNITED LABOR HAD A BIG DAY

At Some Points Political Divisions Cut Down the Numbers in the Parade.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The suffering victims of the sweat-shop system of this city joined the Labor day parade here yesterday. They numbered about ten thousand women and many of them wore rigs, some for dramatic effect, others for the reason that they had nothing else to wear. Most of them are now out on strike and starving. They were loudly cheered as their portion of the parade passed through the street. Yesterday's demonstration was notable for its size, being probably the largest ever held. The wordings on the banners carried by the toilers bespeak boldness. It is easily seen that the sentiment of independent political action has a firm hold on the men.

INDIANA TOWNS CELEBRATE.

The Day Very Generally Observed Throughout the State.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 4.—The Labor day celebration at the fair grounds was a big success. A thousand or more farmers took part. About 1,000 trade union workmen joined in the morning parade. Eugene V. Debs had said he would deliver an address if he could be here, having refused 600 invitations to other places, but he left for Chicago in the morning to meet the lawyers for the defense in the United States court contempt case. Many prominent speakers addressed the gathering.

BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 4.—Labor day was grandly celebrated here. The business houses and residences were handsomely decorated. The parade was the longest one of the kind ever seen in the city, being over a mile in length. At the fair grounds speakers from each of the political parties made addresses.

LABOR DAY AT CHICAGO.

Rain Dampens the Ardor of the Celebrants.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Labor day was generally observed by the representative business concerns yesterday. The feature was the parade of organized labor. That feature was not as successful as in former years as a result of the divisions among the labor unions. Many unions were absent from the parade, chief among them being Typographical Union No. 16. Probably 15,000 men were in line today. Rain probably held many unions from the parade.

DAY BRINGS MANY CASUALTIES.

Passenger Train Strikes a Herd of Cattle and Two Men Are Hurt.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 4.—A passenger train on the Chicago Great Western road which left Des Moines last evening for Chicago struck a herd of cattle on the track about one mile south of Reinbeck, and the entire train, consisting of the engine, baggage car, smoker, one day coach and two sleepers, was thrown down a low embankment.

The coaches and sleeping cars were well filled, but by one of those freaks of luck which can not be explained no one was injured except two traveling men riding in the day coach, who were pretty badly shaken up as the coach rolled down the bank and landed bottom side up.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Sept. 4.—Another strike is on in Spring Valley. This time it is the trappers, and, while they number only about 100 boys, 1,900 men will be idle until they resume work. The cause of the strike is a reduction of wages. General Manager Dalzell wants to cut the boys 5 cents a day and the latter won't stand it. The drivers had a meeting and voted to stand by the boys. He went out on the staging to get some nails but lost his balance, falling to the ground, a distance of about twenty-four feet. He being an aged man it is doubtful if he ever fully recovers. James Plunkett's horse ran away Friday but no serious damage was done. On this same day A. W. Buck fell from his bicycle, receiving several flesh wounds, but not of a serious nature. Mrs. Mina Downing of Janesville, was the guest of her parents the past week. Frank Owen had the misfortune to lose one of his grey horses that he drove on the meat wagon. Wiggins is improving the looks of his residence by a coat of paint. E. L. Parmley has sold his farm to parties from Magnolia who will take possession in the spring. Miss Hettie Dunn began her third year's work in the Academy Monday which speaks well for Miss Dunn as an educator. Miss Johlie Silverthorn who has been sick for some time is improving slowly.

JANESVILLE BOYS BEAT MILTON.

Hot Game of Ball—Big Freight Shipments Grain Market Slower.

MILTON, Sept. 4.—The Holmes "Hustlers" and the "Blue Diamonds" had a right good game of ball here Friday afternoon. The score in a ten-inning game being 9 to 8 in favor of the "Hustlers," with Larson and Sweeney, of the Athletics, to help them out. It was the best game played here this season despite the fact that there were inexcusable errors on both sides. Batteries: Minick and Larson, Greene, Fuller and Greene. Both clubs were white-washed five innings and "Toby" Larson was "fanned" out five times by Fuller. Larson struck out seventeen and Greene and Fuller twenty. D. E. Brown left Monday for Chicago, where he will take a course of medicine at the College of Physicians and Surgeons. Professor A. J. Steele of Memphis, Tenn., was a visitor in the village Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Serl of Fairfield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Coon. Mr. Thomas of Shiloh, N. Y., is the guest of his son, Professor W. D. Thomas, of the college faculty. Miss Mamie Whitford of Westerly, Rhode Island, is here to resume her studies in the college. The grain market was not as brisk this week, but there was considerable trading done. Prices closed a trifle lower. Osborn shipped two cars and Fetherston twelve. Bennett also shipped a car of hay. Sover-hill and Porter received two cars of tobacco and Saunders several car loads of lumber and coal. The freight on shipments from this station, for the month of August, aggregated two thousand dollars. CARS PILED HIGH ON BELOIT'S CURVE

TRAINS COULD NOT PASS ON THE SAME TRACK.

Two Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Mogul Engines and Fifteen Cars, Some of Them Loaded, Are Demolished—Wrecking Train Sent From Here.

Two freight trains were badly smashed on the St. Paul road about one mile south of Beloit last night. It was a head end collision and the north bound train coming down a grade jammed itself half way through the other engine going south. Engineer Botsford going south on No. 93 saw the smoke and slowed up somewhat. A minute more and train No. 94 came down upon them with a full train at full speed. Both crews were able to jump and were all right and the cars were piled up in all shapes and grain, beer kegs and household goods were jumbled in a confused mass.

It seems that Conductor Williams, of the north bound train, thought that the south bound train had passed, and started out, with such disastrous result.

The engines and twelve cars are a total wreck, and two wrecking trains were at work until 3 o'clock this morning, when they opened up the track.

There were four tramps in one car, and that car was thrown about thirty feet down an embankment, but none of them were hurt.

The evening passenger train transferred passengers and baggage around the wreck.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul wrecking train is now kept here, and it made a quick trip from Janesville to Beloit last night. It was called for about 8 o'clock.

Traffic was resumed early this morning, but the way freight that leaves Janesville for Chicago at 9:30, had to go by way of Milwaukee.

NEW BOOKS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

Board of Education Makes Changes at the Suggestion of the University.

There will be a few changes in the text books in the High school at the opening of the fall term. On recommendation of Superintendent Mayne last evening, the school board authorized a change of Stewart's geometry for Wentworth's, the superintendent stating that Stewart's had been in use in the public schools for upwards of twenty years, and in his opinion something new should be put in its place. The next change authorized was that of German text books; Bacon's Leit-faden is to be replaced by Collier & Eisenbach's German. This change was made on recommendation of the faculty of the state university, as the pupils entering that institution who are familiar with the latter text book are given the preference. The only other change authorized was the laying aside of Murray's physical geography, which is replaced by the Eclectic. All the old books discarded can be exchanged by the pupils free of expense. The board audited a few bills and then adjourned until Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, at which time the bids for the construction of the new high school building will be opened and the contract awarded.

RECEPTION TO GENERAL DOE.

It Will Be Tendered by Major Zwietusch Next Friday Evening.

Major Oscar Zwietusch has arranged for what he calls a military stag party to take place at Milwaukee on Friday evening next, with which will be combined a reception to Assistant Secretary of War Doe, who will be in the city at that time. General King, General Ruggles, and members of the state military staff will also be present and it is expected to make the affair a general reunion and reception. This is the same stag party that Major Zwietusch had arranged to take place several months ago, but the night before the affair was to come off the major's wife presented him with twins and there was a postponement of the reception. There will be nothing formal about this party. The presence of General Doe gives the Wisconsin National guardsmen the opportunity they have waited for since his appointment as assistant secretary of war to tender him a reception in recognition of what he has done in the past towards the organization of the state troops. The proceedings will be entirely informal, and all the officers of the general staff will be present, including Governor Peck.

FAIR OPENS IN ANOTHER WEEK.

Things Will Soon Be Humming On the Janesville Grounds.

One week from today the fair opens. The prospects now are for a larger fair than usual and the attractions are especially good. Four bands of music will be in attendance, the Black Hussar Band of Evansville, the Military Band of Milton Junction, the Delavan Cornet Band of Delavan and the Brass Band of Edgerton. The races are going to be better than at any fair held here as the purses have been more than doubled. The children's department will be a feature as the entries are free and the boys and girls all want to get that beautiful silver watch. The books are now open at Secretary's Heimstreet's office and entries can be made there far better than in the crush on Tuesday. Children can get tickets for children's day free from the school teachers and no one will be admitted to the fair unless they have a ticket.

RAISED A BIG STALK OF LEAF

T. H. Edden Has Tobacco that Stands Five Feet High.

T. H. Edden of Harmony brought the biggest stalk of tobacco into the Gazette office that has been brought to light so far. It measured four feet and eight inches from the tip of the topmost leaf to the end of the stalk and it was cut off above the ground too. There were leaves on the stalk twenty-eight inches in length and Mr. Edden has six acres more like it and the crop will make some grower's heart glad this fall. That Mr. Edden is an expert tobacco raiser goes without saying when he produces such plants as this one during such a protracted drouth. Then too, Rock Prairie would seem to be all right.

BEAT THE STREET

ON A BUTTER DEAL

D. J. JAMESON INVOLVED IN CHICAGO LITIGATION.

Commission Merchants Don't Like the Way $3,000 Worth of Butter Was Secured On the Eve Of An Assignment—His References Were Suspiciously Good.

D. J. Jameson, formerly of this city, is defendant in proceedings before the Chicago courts. An attachment suit has been brought against him by A. H. Barber & Co. and a questionable transaction is alleged. On August 21, according to the Chicago Dispatch Jameson came into the store of Dragorius & Co., at 240 South Water street and wanted to buy some butter, stating at the same time that he paid his bills weekly. Asked for his references he said he had been trading with L. E. Newman & Son, at 279, but as their stock of first class butter was short, he was compelled to look elsewhere. On being asked about Jameson, Newman & Son gave him a slip and did not say he was as good as gold and that they had trusted him for as much as $1,200 worth of goods at one time. Nothing then was more natural when on the day following Jameson ordered twenty-five tubs of butter amounting to $370, Dragorius & Co. should have promptly filled it. They did not know, however, at that time that Jameson had gone to several other houses on the street and using the same references was buying goods in the same liberal fashion. This he was doing and in less than no time got into street for something like $3,000 worth of merchandise. The firms bitten are Lyon & Cheattle, N. H., Borton & Brothers, A. H. Barber & Co., J. Neuberger, Dragorius & Co. and Earl Brothers.

On Saturday Jameson failed, being closed up by his father-in-law on a judgment of $2,000. Barker & Co. got in with a writ of attachment for their claim, amounting to $200 and will probably get property enough to make them about even. All the victimized firms, however, feel very sore toward Newman and are inclined to think that he bolstered up Jameson's credit on the street for the sole purpose of getting what Jameson owed him. It is more than likely litigation to hold Newman liable will follow.

APPLEBY HAS A NEW SCHEME

Lock Candidates For Snar # in a Room and Let 'Em Go It.

Down in Beloit there is a short stocky man with an arm like the limb of an oak. His name is W. H. Appleby, he is city marshal, and a candidate for sheriff. The News says that Mr. Appleby thinks that the best way to settle the sheriff contest is to lock the contestants all in a room and allow the best man the privilege of making the race. He thinks that in such case he would stand a better chance. Mr. Appleby should not forget that there is a short stocky man in Janesville, whose name is T. L. Acheson, who is city marshal and a candidate for sheriff. Then J. E. Gleason, R. P. Maltress, L. M. Nelson and all the others are pretty solid men, so the "bluff" should not be pressed to far.

Janesville, August, 31, 1894.

Humorous Men.

The funny men about town write a heap of nonsense for the papers about the hats they see. They carry the largest stocks, and their prices are the lowest. They spring the old worn-out chestnut as regularly as they change their underclothing, as often as four times a year. Guess they never were in our hat store; if they were, they would blush for shame that they ever encouraged such erroneous ideas. One whole side of our mammoth store is devoted to hats, where more styles are displayed than can be found in all the rest of the stores in town. Come in and be convinced. Sole agents for the Miller, only agency hat in the city.

Lennartz, H. Buchholz, Martin Zienow. Mr. Ehrlinger died at Mud Springs, Indiana, Sunday, aged seventy-two years. Besides his wife he leaves seven children—Edward and Charles Ehrlinger, of Portland, Oregon; George Ehrlinger, of Whitewater; Henry P. Ehrlinger, of Chicago; John and Miss Lizzie Ehrlinger, and Mrs. Thomas Hemmingsway, of Hanover.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nerve she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nerve has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate.—Mrs. R. K. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

DAMUTH A VICTIM OF THE PINE FIRE

JANESVILLE FAMILY STRICKEN
BY THE HORROR.

Mrs. Imogene Champion and Mrs. S. N. Sweatman Receive Word That Their Brother Was So Horribly Burned at Sandstone, Minn., That He Committed Suicide.

WALLACE DAMUTH, who lived in the city two years, and whose two sisters, Mrs. Imogene Champion and Mrs. S. N. Sweatman live in the Fourth ward, was one of the victims of the pine fire. He was watchman on the railway bridge at Sandstone and waded out into the river to escape the flames, but was so badly burned that he committed suicide before the rescuing party arrived. The fire swept down on Sandstone about 5:30 in the evening. The wind blew like a hurricane, and as the people were getting ready to leave, the fire closed in on three sides. Not a single person saved a thing except his clothes. About one hundred and sixty went to the river, and fifty or sixty persons were burned to death. No word of Damuth's death was received here until this morning. Then a dispatch came to Mrs. Champion. The Janesville relatives are telegraphing in hope that they will find it possible to attend the funeral.

PLENTY OF GOOD MEN FOR THE TICKET

TWENTY-SEVEN REPUBLICANS
SEEK PREFERMENT.

Nine Avowed Candidates For Sheriff and Out of the String It Will Not Be Hard to Pick An Excellent Standard Bearer—Guessing On Figures.

The Rock county republican convention which assembles in this city on Friday, will be one of the most important county conventions ever held in the county. Its importance hinges upon the fact that never before in the history of the republican party have there been so many candidates in the field for positions on the ticket. Twenty-seven prominent republicans are anxious to have their names printed on the official ballot in this county, when in fact only seven of the number can be favored. For the office of sheriff, the best office in the county, there are nine good names which will be presented to the convention, they being:

John Lynch of Avon.
W. A. Andrews of Magnolia.
James Teeter of Clinton.
William Brink of Evansville.
C. S. Crow of Center.
Roy H. Maltress of Edgerton.
L. M. Nelson of Janesville.
W. P. Appleby of Beloit.
T. L. Acheson of Janesville.
Never before in the history of the party has there been such a thorough personal canvass made in the county. The convention will contain one hundred and twenty members, and the successful candidate, therefore, must receive at least sixty-one votes. The canvass by candidates previous to the holding of the caucuses in the several towns has been made with a view to obtain friendly representation in the convention, and thus secure the coveted sixty-one votes in that body. The canvass by no means has been confined to the office of sheriff. There are six other offices that will not go begging for an occupant. Following the office of sheriff comes that of county treasurer, for which there are four candidates:

Charles N. Nye, of Beloit.
John Sharpe, of Beloit City.
E. C. Thorpe, of Evansville.
O. A. Gifford, of Milton.

Then comes the county clerk, for which, so far as known, but one name will be presented, that of the present incumbent—W. J. McIntyre of Lima. There are three candidates for district attorney:

Henry S. Sloan of Janesville.
W. A. Jackson, of Janesville.
Silas Menzies, of Beloit.
There has been quite an exciting contest for the office of clerk of the court, there being four candidates, all from this city, they being:

E. D. McGowan.
T. R. Goldin.
C. B. Conrad.
E. C. Burdick.
Five candidates will be before the convention seeking the office of register of deeds—

C. L. Valentine of Janesville.
O. D. Rowe of Janesville.
Frank S. Ames of Clinton.
M. A. Northrop of Beloit.
S. F. Wallihan of Center.

For the last office on the list there appears but one man coveting the place—that being George Hanthorn of this city.

With the list of names to be presented the nominating convention cannot fail in making an excellent ticket for the voters of Rock county to elect. It is pleasant to note that notwithstanding the fact that the personal canvass for the several offices has been quite exciting, there have been no personal antagonisms and no bitterness. The candidates meet on terms that promise a hearty and cheerful acquiescence in the result of the convention. All figuring on votes is simply guess work at this time. However Editor Cham Ingersoll of Beloit, who is well versed in county politics, ventured a guess as to the result of the first ballot for sheriff as follows:

Acheson, 40.
Appleby, 32.
Maltress, 25.
Nelson, 15.
Scattering, 8.
This leaves Acheson twenty-one short of the necessary number to nominate. Editor Ingersoll thought from all the indications that Valentine would be nominated on the first ballot for register; that McGowan would ultimately be nominated, provided he could secure the lion's share of the Janesville delegates, and that Sloan would be nominated for district attorney on the first ballot. The indications point to an easy time for County Clerk McIntyre being renominated, and the road is not hilly for C. N. Nye, of Beloit, for treasurer.

Janesville will name delegates tonight. This will complete the list except for two towns, which hold caucuses on Wednesday. The list as it now stands is as follows:
Avon—J. S. Lynch, Wm. Garde.
Beloit Town—A. C. Powers, Herbert Baldwin.
Clinton Town—Byron Snyder, A. W. Shepard, Ira Jacobson.
Clinton Village—James Teeter, A. H. Fonda, O. Harden.
Harmony—W. J. Aikin, N. N. Jackman.
La Prairie—C. W. Stark, N. O. Van Gilder.
Magnolia—Thos Harper, Wm. Sturdevant.
Newark—H. G. Nelson, H. Cleophas, H. H. Husman, J. Cousins.
Plymouth—E. N. Haugen, H. M. Fitch, H. J. Snyder.

Porter—E. S. Raymond, A. White, John Barnes.
Rock—W. J. Miller, M. A. Hayner, Edgerton—A. S. Flagg, F. W. Coon, H. S. McGiffin, C. L. Burnham.

H. J. CUNNINGHAM KNOCKED SENSELESS BY A BOLT.

Chimney of His Glen Etta Home Wrecked and He Stretched Beside It Unconscious—Damage in Various Parts of the City—Telephone Lines Suffered.

Herbert J. Cunningham was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon and was rendered insensible for some time. During the storm yesterday afternoon he went into the attic of his house in Glen Etta to see if the roof was leaking. He was standing by the chimney when the lightning struck. It knocked him down and left him unconscious. The chimney was torn down by the lightning bolt, and Mr. Cunningham was so thoroughly overcome that it was some time before he could be restored. Today he says he heard no thunder and saw no lightning.

There were several vivid flashes of lightning during the storm, but the telephone exchange and the fire alarm machinery were the only things that suffered loss.

Mr. Cunningham's house, aside from the wrecked chimney, is not injured. A number of soft maple trees in different parts of the city were blown down, and the flag staff on the west side fire station was twisted out of shape.

Dr. H. A. McChesney, Janesville, Wisconsin:

Dear Sir:—As you know I began treatment two weeks ago for a deafness of ten years' standing caused by a catarrh of the ear, creating a continuous ringing noise that made it impossible to hear or catch a sound at any considerable distance. In that brief space (14 days) I find myself so greatly relieved that in going to church yesterday and occupying a pew in the rear, I was surprised that I could hear distinctly every word from the pulpit, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years. I join most heartily in recommending your Catarrh Cure to every body afflicted with catarrh in any form, and particularly of the head and throat, and advise them to try your medicines, as they will certainly find immediate and sure relief, and I firmly believe a permanent cure.

Your friend and well wisher,

OSCAR COBB.

THE GREAT DIVINE'S LATEST SERMON

CHRIST IS THE RESCUER OF
ALL MANKIND.

Dr. Talmage Sends a Sermon from the Islands of the South Pacific Ocean—
Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is still absent in the South Pacific, has selected as the subject of to-day's sermon through the press, "The Rescue," the text chosen being Acts 16:31 "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

Jails are dark, dull, damp, loathsome places even now; but they were worse in the apostolic times. I imagine, to-day, we are standing in the Philippian dungeon. Do you not feel the chill? Do you not hear the groans of those incarcerated ones who for ten years have not seen the sunlight, and the deep sigh of women who remember their father's house, and mourn over their wasted estates? Listen again. It is the cough of a consumptive, or the struggle of one in the nightmare of a great horror. You listen again, and hear a culprit, his chains rattling as he rolls over in his dreams, and you say, "God pity the prisoner." But there is another sound in that prison. It is the song of joy and gladness. What a place to sing in! The music comes winding through the corridors of the prison, and in all the dark wards the whisper is heard, "What's that? What's that?"

It is the song of Paul and Silas. They can not sleep. They have been whipped, very badly whipped. The long lashes on their backs are bleeding yet. They lie flat on the cold ground, their feet fast in wooden sockets, and of course they can not sleep. But they can sing. Jailers, what are you doing with these people? Why have they been put in here? Oh, they have been trying to make the world better. Is that all? That is all. A pit for Joseph. A lion's cave for Daniel. A blazing furnace for Shadrach. Clubs for John Wesley. An anathema for Philip Melancthon. A dungeon for Paul and Silas.

But while we are standing in the gloom of the Philippian dungeon, and we hear the mingling voices of sob and groan and blasphemy and hallelujah, suddenly an earthquake! The iron bars of the prison twist, the pillars creak off, the solid masonry begins to heave, and all the doors swing open. The jailer, feeling himself responsible for these prisoners, and believing, in his pagan ignorance, suicide to be honorable—since Brutus killed himself and Cato killed himself and Cassius killed himself—puts his sword to his own heart, proposing with one keen thrust to put an end to his excitement and agitation. But Paul cries out, "Stop! stop! no harm. We are all here."

Then I see the jailer running through the dust and amid the ruin of that prison, and I see him throwing himself down at the feet of these prisoners, crying out, "What shall I do? What shall I do?" Did Paul answer, "Get out of this place before there is another earthquake; put handcuffs and hobbles on these other prisoners, lest they get away?" No word of that kind. His compact, thrilling, tremendous answer, answer memorable all through earth and heaven, was, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

Well, we have all read of the earthquake in Lisbon, in Lima, in Aleppo, and in Caracas; but we live in a latitude where in all our memory there has not been one severe volcanic disturbance. And yet we have seen fifty earthquakes. Here is a man who has been building up a large fortune. His bid on the money market was felt in all the cities. He thinks he has got beyond all annoying rivalries in trade and he says to himself, "Now I am free and safe from all possible perturbation." But in 1857 or in 1873 a national panic strikes the foundation of the commercial world, and crash goes all that magnificent business establishment. Here is a man who has built up a very beautiful home. His daughters have just come home from the seminary with diplomas of graduation. His sons have started in life, honest, temperate, and pure. When the evening lights are struck, there is a happy and unbroken family circle. But there has been an accident down at Long Branch. The young man ventured too far out in the surf. The telegraph hurled the terror up to the city. An earthquake struck under the foundation of that beautiful home.

The piano closed; the curtains dropped; the laughter hushed. Crash! go all those domestic hopes and prospects and expectations. So, my friends, we have all felt the shaking down of some great trouble, and there was a time when we were as much excited as this man of the text, and we cried out as he did, "What shall I do? What shall I do?" The same reply that the apostle made to him is appropriate to us, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

There are some documents of so little importance that you do not care to put any more than your last name under them, or even your initials; but there are some documents of so great importance that you write out your full name. So the Saviour in some parts of the Bible is called "Lord," and in other parts of the Bible he is called "Jesus," and in other parts of the Bible he is called "Christ;" but that there might be no mistake about this passage all three names come together—"The Lord Jesus Christ."

Now, who is this being that you want me to trust in and believe in? Men sometimes come to me with credentials and certificates of good character, but I can not trust them. There is some dishonesty in their looks that makes me know that I will be cheated if I confide in them. You can not put your heart's confidence in a man until you know what stuff he is made of, and I am unreasonable when I stop to ask you who this is that you want me to trust in? No man would think of venturing his life on a vessel going out to sea that had never been inspected.

No, you must have the certificate lung amidships, telling how many tons it carries, and how long ago it was built, and who built it, and all about it. And you can not expect me to risk the cargo of my immortal interests on board any craft till you tell me what it is made of, and where it was made, and what it is.

When, then, I ask you who this is you want me to trust in you tell me he is a very attractive person. Contemporary writers describe his whole appearance as being resplendent. There was no need for Christ to tell the children to come to him. "Suffer little children to come unto me," was not spoken to the children; it was spoken to the disciples. The children came readily enough without any invitation. No sooner did Jesus appear, than the little ones jumped from their mothers' arms, an avalanche of beauty and love, into his lap. Christ did not ask John to put his head down on his bosom; John could not help but put his head there. I suppose a look at Christ was just to love him. How attractive his manner! Why, when they saw Christ coming along the street, they ran into their houses, and they wrapped up their invalids as quick as they could, and brought them out that he might look at them. Oh, there was something so pleasant, so inviting, so cheering in everything he did, in his very look. When these sick ones were brought out did he say: "Do not bring before me these sores; do not trouble me with these leprosy!" No, no; there was a kind look, there was a gentle word, there was a healing touch. They could not keep away from him.

In addition to this softness of character, there was a fiery momentum. How the kings of the earth turned pale. Here is a plain man with a few sailors at his back, coming off the sea of Galilee, going up to the palace of the Caesars, making that palace quake to the foundations, and uttering a word of mercy and kindness which throbs through all the earth, and through all the heavens, and through all ages. Oh, he was a loving Christ. But it was not effeminacy or insipidity of character; it was accompanied with majesty, infinite and omnipotent. Lest the world should not realize his earnestness, this Christ mounts the cross.

You say: "If Christ has to die, why not let him take some deadly potion and lie on a couch in some bright and beautiful home? If he must die, let him expire amid all kindly attentions." No, the world must hear the hammer on the heads of the spikes. The world must listen to the death rattle of the sufferer. The world must feel his warm blood dropping on each cheek, while it looks up into the face of his anguish. And so the cross must be lifted, and a hole is dug on the top of Calvary.

It must be dug three feet deep, and then the cross is laid on the ground, and the sufferer is stretched upon it, and the nails are pounded through nerve and muscle and bone, through the right hand, through the left hand; and then they shake his right hand up the wood, half a dozen shoulders under the weight, and they put the end of the cross to the mouth of the hole, and they plunge it in, all the weight of his body coming down for the first time on the spikes; and while some hold the cross upright, others throw in the dirt and trample it down, and trample it hard.

Oh, plant the tree well and thoroughly, for it is to bear fruit such as no other tree ever bore. Why did Christ endure it? He could have taken those rocks, and with them crushed his crucifiers. He could have reached up and grasped the sword of the Omnipotent God, and with one clean cut have tumbled them into perdition. But no, he was to die. He must die. His life for your life. In a European city a young man died on the scaffold for the crime of murder. Some time after, the mother of this young man was dying, and the priest came in, and she made confession to the priest that she was the murderer, and not her son; in a moment of anger she had struck her husband a blow that slew him. The son came suddenly into the room, and was washing away the wounds and trying to resuscitate his father, when some one looked through the window and saw him and supposed him to be the criminal. That young man died for his own mother. You say, "It was wonderful that he never exposed her." But I tell you of a grander thing. Christ, the Son of God, died not for his mother, not for his father, but for his sworn enemies. Oh, such a Christ as that—so loving, so patient, so self-sacrificing—can you not trust him?

I think there are many under the influence of the Spirit of God who are saying, "I will trust him if you will only tell me how;" and the great question asked by many is, "How?" And when I answer your question I look up and utter the prayer which Rowland Hill so often uttered in the midst of his sermons, "Master, help!" How are you to trust in Christ?

Just as you trust any one. You trust your partner in business with important things. If a commercial house gives you a note payable three months hence, you expect the payment of that note at the end of three months. You have perfect confidence in their word and in their ability. Or again, you go home to-day. You expect there will be food on the table. You have confidence in that. Now, I ask you to have the same confidence in the Lord Jesus Christ. He says, "You believe: I take away your sins;" and they are all taken away. "What?" say you, "before I pray any more?" before I read my Bible any more? before I cry over my sins any more? Yes, this moment. Believe with all your heart and you are saved. Why, Christ is only waiting to get from you what you give to scores of people every day. What is that? Confidence. If these people whom you trust day by day are more worthy than Christ, if they are more faithful than Christ, if they have done more than Christ ever did, then give them the preference; but if you really think that Christ is as trustworthy as they are, then deal with him as fairly.

"Oh," says some one in a light way, "I believe that Christ was born in Bethlehem, and I believe that he died on the cross." Do you believe it with your head or your heart? I will illustrate the difference. You are in your own house. In the morning you open a newspaper and you read how Capt. Braveheart on the sea risked his life for the salvation of his passengers. You say, "What a grand fellow he must have been! His family deserves very well of the country." You fold the newspaper and sit down at the table, and perhaps do not think of that incident again. That is historical faith.

But now you are on the sea, and it is night, and you are asleep, and you are awakened by the shriek of "Fire!" You rush out on the deck. You hear, amid the wringing of the hands and the fainting, the cry: "No hope! No hope! We are lost! we are lost!" The sail puts out its wing of fire, the ropes make a burning ladder in the night heavens, the spirit of wreck hisses in the wave, and on the hurricane deck shakes out its banner of smoke and darkness. "Down with the life boats!" cries the captain. "Down with the life boats!" People rush into them. The boats are about full. Room only for one more man. You are standing on the deck beside the captain.

Who shall it be? You or the captain? The captain says, "You." You jump, and are saved. He stands there, and dies. Now, you believe that Captain Braveheart sacrificed himself for his passengers, but you believe it with love, with tears, with hot and long continued exclamations; with great grief at his loss and joy at your deliverance. That is saving faith. In other words, what you believe with all the heart, and believe in regard to yourself. On this hinge turns my sermon; aye, the salvation of your immortal soul. You often go across a bridge you know nothing about. You do not know who built the bridge, you do not know what material it is made of; but you come to it and walk over it and ask no questions. And here is an arched bridge blasted from the "Rock of Ages." And built by the Architect of the whole universe, spanning the dark gulf between sin and righteousness, and all God asks you is to walk across it; and you start, and you come to it, and you stop, and you go a little way on and you stop, and you fall back, and you experiment. You say, "How do I know that bridge will hold me?" instead of marching on with firm step, asking no questions, but feeling that the strength of the eternal God is under you.

Oh, was there ever a prize proffered so cheap as pardon and heaven are offered to you? For how much? A million dollars? It is certainly worth more than that. But cheaper than that you can have it. Ten thousand dollars? Less than that. Five thousand dollars? Less than that. One dollar? Less than that. One farthing? Less than that. "Without money and without price." No money to pay. No journey to take. No penance to suffer. Only just one decisive action of the soul: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

From His Point of View.
She—Where are you going to, Edward?
He—My dear, a wise woman never asks her husband where he is going.
"And yet a wise man may ask his wife."
"You are mistaken my dear. Wise men never have any wives."

IT STOPS THE PROGRESS of Consumption. The makers of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are certain of it. They've proved it for years past—and they're willing to sell it with the agreement that if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, they'll return the money. Consumption is that awful condition that comes from impure blood. The "Discovery" prevents it, if taken in time; cures it completely, if you haven't waited too long; gives relief and comfort, even in advanced cases.

Use it in severe, lingering Coughs, Asthma, Weak Lungs, and every Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affection.

D. C. ROSENBAUM, Esq., of Dutch, Grainger Co., Tenn., writes as follows: "I had been going down in strength for several months. I was not able to stir and I smothered very often. After taking 'Discovery' my cough was relieved. I could walk three miles without trouble, catching cold could not distress me now. As long as I live I'll praise 'G. M. D.'"

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

"Be Quiet," Said She.

An excellent story was told at a London charity dinner the other night. Mr. Sydney Holland, the chairman of the Poplar Hospital for Accidents, is reported as follows:

"One day a man was brought in who was thought to be dead. His wife was with him. One of the doctors said: 'He is dead,' but the man raised his head and said, 'No, I am not dead yet,' whereupon his wife admonished him, saying: 'Be quiet; the doctor ought to know best.'"

When the Trouble Began.

"Did you see the beginning of the trouble?" asked the judge of a witness against a man who had struck his wife.

"Yes, sir; I saw the very commencement of the difficulty. It was about two years ago."

"Two years ago?"

"Yes, sir. The minister said: 'Will you take this man to be your lawful husband?' and she said: 'I will.'—Alec Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

Two gentlemen bold
With pistols a duel did fight

But their bullets collided.
In fact, coincided!
So they bowed—which was very polite.

That settled it.
He had proposed, but she seemed somewhat reluctant to gild his life with the sunshine of her consent.

"If you should hear that I am frivolous, vain, that I spend half my time before my mirror, what would you say?" she asked.

"If I had a face like yours I should be tempted to be there the whole time," he answered.

That settled it.—Answers.

Avoiding Pain and Peril.
Defensive measures against the foe are ever adopted by a wise commander. You can be commander of the situation and strike a decisive blow at the start at that dangerous and relentless enemy, rheumatism, if attacked by it, by resorting in time to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which checks permanently the progress of a malady among the most obstinate, painful and possibly dangerous, against which medical skill and the resources of materia medica are arrayed. No evidence is more concurrent and convincing than that which proves that the Bitters neutralizes the rheumatic poison and checks its farther development in the system. For malaria and kidney trouble, dyspepsia, want of vitality, nervousness, liver complaint and constipation, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the leading remedy.

A Disputed Case.
Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the result or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

A Good Wing Shot.

A schoolmistress in Australia sued three young men for breach of promise. Counsel for one of them moved for a nonsuit on the ground that she was too much engaged. The court seemed disposed to grant the motion, whereupon the plaintiff asked: "Judge, did you ever go duck shooting?"

The judge, with the pride of a sportsman—Well, I should say so! Many's the time I brought down half a dozen at a shot.

"I knew it!" eagerly exclaimed the fair plaintiff. "That's just the case with me, judge. A flock of these fellows besieged me, and I winged three of them."

The motion for a nonsuit was refused.

THE RESULT

OF AN AMERICAN WOMAN'S WORK.

Not An Assertion, But a Truth, Proven by the Accumulated Testimony of 20 Years.

HERE'S a reason for it, when a special remedy for a special disease maintains the first place in the faith of the people for twenty years; when, year after year, the confidence given cautiously at first rolls into a tremendous volume; when one woman's name is known throughout the civilized world; when letters from all parts of the earth in gratitude and praise; when druggists place this remedy first on the list of standard remedies.

Then there is a reason for it. Lydia E. Pinkham and her wonderful Vegetable Compound, deserve the first place in the hearts of womankind.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women from all disease arising from irregularity and derangement of the uterus and womb than any remedy known to medical science.

Are you suffering? then profit by the experience of this thankful woman:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham,—Last winter I did not think my little ones would have a mother long. I suffered terribly with female troubles.

I could keep nothing on my stomach, and got so "poor" my friends hardly knew me. I suffered with severe headaches, dizziness, faintness, backache, and the blues.

Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am now as fat as ever, and have no female troubles.

If you use my letter I hope it may be the means of saving some other poor mother's life as it did mine.—Mrs. ELLA VAN BUREN, St. David, Fulton Co., Ill.

While the Dance Goes On_____

• • • LAPSES AND SLAMS.

In support of the startling proposition that "Most People are Crazy at Times," the well-known facts are adduced that a wise man will step backwards off a porch, a philosopher will hunt for the spectacles he holds in his hands, a hunter will shoot his comrade or his dog and people will deposit in the letter boxes in the street, gloves, deeds, mortgages, theatre tickets, spectacles and all manner of things, while carefully holding onto the letters which should have gone into the receptacles. We have been accused of being Crazy. Perhaps we are, but our accusers invariably have been those who are hurt the most because we will not join hands in holding prices up. The prices we are making on at the present time we will admit are crazy ones, but what care you? We are the losers, if there is a loss. Let those "sound minded people" compete with us. We are retailing couches of all kinds for less than any of the other furniture houses in the city can buy them wholesale.
